

Sustainable Peace and Human Rights in Colombia

27 February 2019 | 18:15 – 20:30

25 Gordon Street, London WC1H 0AY (Room D 103)

Free Event. Please RSVP via Eventbrite.

The implementation of the Peace Accord with the FARC provides an opportunity to advance peace, human rights and gender equality through key structural changes in Colombia. What are the new challenges and obstacles facing Colombia following the 2018 elections? What progress has been made on the implementation of the gender-inclusive peace agreements?

Join a conversation with Colombian Human Rights Defender Rosa Emilia Salamanca (Corporation for Social and Economic Research - CIASE), Myriam Ojeda (Initiatives for Peace) and Louise Winstanley (ABColumbia).

ABColumbia will launch its new report on the implementation of the gendered agreements in the Colombian Peace Accord. The event includes a screening of a short documentary about families of victims of forced disappearance in Colombia.

Moderator: Prof. Maxine Molyneux
former Director of the UCL Institute of the Americas

The event will be an interactive dialogue between the audience and:

Myriam Ojeda - Initiatives for Peace and Diaspora Women

Rosa Emilia Salamanca - Executive Director, Corporation for Research, Social and Economic Action (CIASE), Colombia

Louise Winstanley - Programme and Advocacy Manager, ABColumbia

Towards Transformative Change:
Women and the Implementation of the Colombian Peace Accord